The glorious old pastime of "running years, and will do much toward the guard" suddenly went out of fashion many years, and will do much toward the guard" suddenly went out of resolution for the command today when regulars under the command of Lieut. F. H. Wagner, U. S. A., took charge of the sentry duty about the camp. Battalion drill and company ex-ercise in rapid deployment will constitute the chief work for tomorrow, according to orders issued tonight.

War Game Began Early. The war game broke over the camp this morning, following a quick mobilization order. The militiamen scattered over the sand hills, picked out the best positions.
